How will my application be assessed?

Funding awarded through this program is determined based on an organization's most recent, board-approved financial statements and Community Derived Revenue (CDR). CDR is defined as an organization's total annual revenue minus all federal, provincial and municipal grants.

Eligible grant requests are calculated according to:

- total Community Derived Revenue to a maximum of 12 per cent
- equitable distribution of available funds to all eligible applicants to determine your funding allocation

Funding for Community Focused Arts Organizations is established by the AFA Board of Directors based upon the annual AFA budget allocated by the Government of Alberta. Department staff evaluate applications according to eligibility criteria and prepare recommendations to the board, which reviews and approves all funding.

All decisions are final and no appeals will be considered.

When will I hear?

Applicants will receive email notification upon AFA board approval, generally between four to six months from the application deadline.

Organizations are only eligible to receive support from one AFA operating grant stream at any given time. Multiple applications to the Community Focused Arts Organizations program or to other AFA operating grant programs will not be accepted.

- if your organization fails to satisfy AFA recognition requirements, it may be subject to a 10 per cent funding reduction in subsequent grant applications
