This funding supports organizations in delivering residence-based art summer schools that offer:

- an arts intensive training experience in any discipline through technical skills workshops with professional artists and instructors
- opportunities for young people from across the province to engage in the creative process

Deadline information

October 1, 2025

Who can apply

To be eligible for this funding, applicants must be:

- registered not-for-profit organizations
- registered and in good standing in Alberta under the appropriate legislation, for at least one year prior to the deadline
- have been in operation for at least one full year prior to the deadline
- have at least 50% of the organization's board members, or ruling council, living in Alberta
- demonstrate adherence to good governance principles, efficient administration practices and commitment to fiscal responsibility
- demonstrate financial stability, in the judgment of the AFA, for at least one year

- operate as a stand-alone organization at arm's length from municipalities, commercial enterprises or schools
- have the authority to provide residence-based programming for minors
- have previous experience organizing, designing and operating residence-based art programming

Previous grant recipients must have met reporting requirements in order to be eligible to receive funding.

Two or more organizations that satisfy the eligibility criteria may apply to collaborate to operate a summer arts school program. A partnership project must be submitted through one primary organization. The primary organization must designate the main contact for all requirements of the grant.

Partnership projects must demonstrate that:

- control and responsibilities in the partnership are shared equally amongst all partners
- knowledge and practices will be shared and exchanged for the benefit of all project partners
- the partnership results in activity that is beyond the normal programming of partnering organizations
- the project could not be otherwise completed without the existence of the partnership

Ineligible organizations

Ineligible organizations are:

- municipalities
- commercial enterprises
- schools
- groups that are not arm's length from municipalities, commercial enterprises or schools
- organizations that engage primarily in competition-based activity

What does this funding support?

Eligible summer school projects must:

- consist of residence-based art-intensive camp programs of no less than five (5) consecutive days in length where students are provided with supervision, meals and overnight accommodation
- take place between July 1 and August 31
- deliver arts programming to students ages 11-19 years
- provide students access to Alberta's professional artists and instructors
- provide a daily regime of workshops and other hands-on activities for students to learn arts skill techniques and actively engage in creative process learning
- provide adequate participant supervision and safety requirements
- deliver age-appropriate curriculum and course content
- encourage participants to discover and express their creative potential
- provide workshops and other activity in an appropriate inclusive environment
- encourage province-wide participation

Eligible expenses

Applicants may apply for up to 40% of eligible expenses that are directly related to carrying out the proposed project, such as:

- administration
- programming
- instructor and artist fees
- promotional costs
- accommodation and classroom arrangements
- equipment rental costs and related extracurricular activities
- supervisory staff
- course and content development
- food and lodging
- materials and supplies
- other expenses considered by the AFA to be reasonable and necessary

Ineligible expenses

Expenses and activities that are ineligible for AFA funding include:

- activities eligible for funding or already funded by AFA
- activity undertaken before an application is submitted to this project grant stream. Projects must not start before the application is received by the AFA

- projects or programs offered by affiliated organizations that are eligible for funding under other AFA programs
- expenses related to eligible projects or programs that are covered by the institution (e.g. facility costs, permanent staff salaries, overhead costs) Summer schools operated by organizations whose permanent staff contribute significantly to the administration, promotion and operation of the school can declare up to 15% of permanent staff salaries, and must include a description of the applicable work undertaken by permanent staff
- activities by applied arts (culinary, architecture, graphic arts, commercial photography, gaming), variety acts (face painting, balloon entertainers, fireworks/pyrotechnics, hypnotism), competitive performances and activities at social events

Ineligible expenses also include, but are not limited to:

- alcohol
- amortization
- GST expenses
- fundraising expenses
- purchases such as buildings or property, or capital development such as construction or renovations

Each organization involved in a partnership project must submit financial statements and confirmation of their corporate registries return.

How will my application be assessed?

The annual AFA budget is based upon funds allocated in the annual Government of Alberta budget and funding for this grant stream is established by the AFA board of Directors.

Staff convene an expert panel to consider all eligible grant applications submitted to each grant deadline. The expert panel assesses the merit of each application both on its own terms and in relation to all other applications received for a given deadline.

Assessment of a project is based on the following general criteria

- merit of curriculum
- merit of marketing plan
- impact of the program on participants
- applicant's history of providing training programs
- artistic and technical level of instructors
- instructors level of experience teaching arts to youth
- appropriateness of summer school budget
- the ability of the applicant to carry out the proposed project

The expert panel will be encouraged ensure support is provided to projects in a variety of arts disciplines. All decisions are final. Funding is not assured for any project.

When will I hear?

Grant recommendations are made to the AFA board of directors. Successful recipients will be notified upon board approval, generally between four to six months from the application deadline.

Conditions

Funding is intended for the purposes described in your application. By accepting funding, you agree to undertake the project as proposed in your original project description.

If you do not receive the full grant amount requested, you are still required to complete the project as proposed if you accept the grant:

- you must return the grant funds if the project cannot be completed as proposed

If you require a change to your project including outcomes, location or an extension to your final report due date:

- you must submit a request in writing for approval by the AFA

- the request must be submitted prior to the change being made and/or before your final report is due
- the AFA may consider a single extension per funding opportunity

Funding recipients are responsible for informing the AFA of how funds were spent and outcomes of the project:

- you must return funds if reporting requirements are not met
- you must return unused portions of funding to the AFA

Any funding recipient who does not provide a report prior to the date noted in the successful notification document, or does not fulfill any conditions associated with a grant or whose report is not approved will be made delinquent and ineligible for further funding from the AFA for a period of three years from the time the delinquency is resolved.

In addition to reporting requirements, applicants may be required to provide interim activity reports, financial reports or statements and other information deemed necessary by the AFA or its representatives. The AFA, or its authorized representative, may examine the applicant's financial and other records to ensure that the grant is being, or was used for its intended purpose.

- the AFA will retain all materials submitted with grant applications
- the AFA does not provide advances for any grant

Funding acknowledgement

Whenever possible, you must acknowledge the AFA for financial support in any publicity prepared in relation to the project, including electronic, print or visual material.

Download versions of the AFA logo and guidelines for usage.

A minimum reduction of 10% will be applied to any subsequent grant of any organization that does not satisfy the AFA acknowledgement requirements.

Reporting

You are required to complete and submit a satisfactory final report in GATE Front Office upon completion of the project by November 1 following the summer school.

The final report must include:

- summer school participation report: online form that outlines the total number of participants and the number of participants categorized by age and geographic region
- outcomes report: a description of the results of the summer school, with an evaluation of its success in relation to the original objectives as stated in the application
- financial report: showing project expenditures and income including AFA summer school grant funds
- copies of promotional materials in which AFA support is acknowledged
